

PRESEASON PREPARATION

Proper vehicle preparation is required after the summer months or when a vehicle has not been used for more than three months.

Procedures are detailed in PERIODIC MAINTENANCE PROCEDURES subsection.

PRESEASON PREPARATION
Visually inspect engine seals and gaskets and check for leaks
Change engine oil and filter
Check exhaust system condition and check for leaks
Check coolant density
Inspect fuel lines and connections
Clean and inspect throttle body
Inspect drive belt (adjust at every drive belt replacement)
Clean and visually inspect drive pulley
Clean and inspect driven pulley
Inspect, adjust and align track
Adjust drive chain
Change chaincase oil
Check brake fluid level
Inspect brake hose, pads and disc
Inspect steering mechanism
Inspect skis and runners
Inspect front suspension
Inspect rear suspension stopper strap
Charge battery
Adjust headlight beam aiming