

PRESEASON PREPARATION

Proper vehicle preparation is required after the summer months or when a vehicle has not been used for more than three months.

Procedures are detailed in PERIODIC MAINTENANCE PROCEDURES subsection.

| PRESEASON PREPARATION |
|---|
| Visually inspect engine seals and gaskets and check for leaks |
| Change engine oil and filter |
| Check exhaust system condition and check for leaks |
| Check coolant density |
| Inspect fuel lines and connections |
| Clean and inspect throttle body |
| Inspect drive belt (adjust at every drive belt replacement) |
| Clean and visually inspect drive pulley |
| Clean and inspect driven pulley |
| Inspect, adjust and align track |
| Change gearbox oil |
| Check brake fluid level |
| Inspect brake hose, pads and disc |
| Inspect steering mechanism |
| Inspect skis and runners |
| Inspect front suspension |
| Inspect rear suspension stopper strap |
| Charge battery |
| Adjust headlight beam aiming |